

 French Class Coming at ECS *****

L'Ecole Du Samedi

(French for 'Saturday School')

a nonprofit organization that promotes francophone language and culture, in partnership with ECS, intends to open one class for beginners this fall!

Spoken and written French will be taught through both formal teaching and fun activities, preferentially to 6th to 8th Grades students.

The goal is to get them ready for French 1 in high school.

But, if your 4th or 5th grader is interested to learn French, let us know!

Where: Classes will happen at ECS Upper School.

When : Saturdays from September 19th to May 21st 2016 (30 Saturdays in total).

We will meet for 2 hours from 4:30pm to 6:45pm (short recess included).

Number of students: We will accept a maximum of 15 students. But, we need at least 8 students to be able to open the class.

Cost: there is a $25 registration fee per family for the year. Then, there is a $5 fee per family per month. Classes are $6/hr per student, so $12 per Saturday.

Payments will be due at first class, either in full or in installments (Details to be provided).

Registration:

Fill in the coupon at the bottom of this flier, and return it to Sonia Rathelot in the PCO mailbox at the Upper School by September 12th 2015. Do not send payment yet.
